Post Event Report

Mensa Singapore
April Soapbox 09 Presentation

18 April 2009

Vijay Pillai, Senior Manager of Adecco Banking Division, delivered a presentation on various broad topics at the Suntec NUS Guild House.

In a room filled with people from different walks of life ranging from students to working adults, Vijay started off by introducing himself and his work experience, and gave an overview of Adecco and the services we provide. His presentation covered areas such as the importance of a good resume, what employers look for in a resume and advice on acing that job interview. To make the presentation more interesting and interactive, Vijay also shared with the audience myths about resumes.

Various questions were raised by the audience. Some of which included, "What is your thoughts about reference check?", "What is the importance of having a cover letter?" and "How does your body language affect the success of acing a job interview?" In response, Vijay answered their questions with ease and with utmost confidence.

After the presentation, Jeff Hong, Director of Membership Division, Mensa Singapore, shared with us that it is even more crucial now than ever that to help their members secure a job in this difficult time. Through our sharing, they would be able to receive tips and advice on ways to outshine their competitors in the job market.

Kudos to Vijay for his sharing and presentation at the April Soapbox 2009!
