Gerard Milligan

Head of Banking Selection, Adecco Professional Staffing

Gerard Milligan has joined Adecco Professional Staffing to lead the creation of its specialist Banking Selection team.

Relocating to Singapore from the UK, Gerard has over 10 years experience recruiting for Investment Banks, Hedge Funds, Private Equity companies and Wealth Managers. After working as Head of Research for the LNi Group - a UK based boutique finance house, Gerard established his own staffing company, Morgan Kim Milligan, which he ran for 6 years before moving on as head of business development for a risk consultancy business.

With Adecco, Gerard leads a specialist recruitment team that helps bridge the gap between business and technology in the banking and associated sectors, providing a service based upon relationship management and business specialization. Gerard and his team work closely with investment banks, hedge funds and wealth management companies.

Gerard's extensive recruitment experience in the UK is a great asset to Adecco in Singapore as it continues to grow its professional staffing business units.

Gerard, a UK national, is based at the company's Raffles Place office in the Clifford Centre.
